History

1962

In 1962, Hans and Ida Altreuter opened the Café Altreuter, which was situated in the current Rathauscafé back then. Hans Altreuter had gained many years of experience as a master confectioner in Switzerland at the Confiserie Roggwiller in St. Gallen.

1968

In 1968, the new building of Café Altreuter was built at Marktplatz 11.

1970

Visit by the astronauts of Apollo 14, Edgar Mitchell, Eugene Cernan, Alan Shepard and Joe Engle.

1991

Handover of the business to the son Roland Altreuter, who has gained experience at several well-known establishments such as Kurcafé in Reit im Winkel, Southampton on Princess Hotel in Bermuda, Café Feldherrnhalle in Munich, Café am Markt in Schwäbisch Hall and Waldhotel in Degerloch.

1993

Redesign of the shop and entrance area.

2010

Renovation of Café Altreuter with new furnishings.

2012

50-year business anniversary. Renovation and redesign of the shop and counter fittings.

2021

Renovation and redesign of the hotel rooms.
